Form 990, Part III, Line 4b, Description of Program Service:

The Public Art Program, founded in 1994, provides opportunities for participating artists to take risks, explore new ways to work within a community, and provide the community with the unique experience of working directly with artists. Seven installation/exhibition houses are out of the original twenty-two shotgun houses. Three times each year, these houses are part of a "Round" of installations where site-specific art is created in each house. Artists and artist collaborations participated in public art programming, including residencies, fellowships, lectures, artist talks, and installations. Over 25,000
